

BusinessPlus Trading Management System

BusinessPlus Trading Management System is a business management software designed mainly for small to medium size enterprises in trading industry. It provides effective management of key business functional areas including sales, purchase and inventory. It can run on multiple platforms over Internet for remote offices. When integrated with FlexAccount Financial Management System, the software suite is empowered to provide sophisticated financial analysis and operation management.

Key Benefits

- Scalable platform for enterprises with multiple entities and varied trade products/models
- Print documents with photos and maintain supporting of sales, purchase and inventory activities
- Facilitate merchandisers to quickly source the right supplier(s) and product(s)
- Accurate reflection of inventory value for different product categories
- Auto price retrieval from default price or customer/supplier specific product pricing table
- Identify document nature from the "pre-fix" while catering for reports sorting and grouping
- Support partial shipment and partial billing with relevant process control
- Provide flexibility to cater for varied trade practices in ever-changing market
- Streamlined purchasing process to increase sourcing efficiency and accuracy
- Responsive to customer inquiry by instant reference to history prices, order status and stock availability
- Cater for business users' need to manage reports distribution in different styles
- Sophisticated ranking, time sequential, exception, ratio, trend and grouping analysis can be done instantly with no need for technical expertise
- High standard risk management and complete audit trail to foster internal control

Key Features

- Multi-company, multi-currency, unlimited customer, supplier, warehouse & product
- Multiple product images and attachments at document entries and print-outs
- User definable product categories for analysis and product (supplier) search
- Multiple inventory costing methods (FIFO, Average and Lot) and real time stock inquiry
- Multiple sales and purchase pricing scheme and user definable charge/discount items
- Up to 20 characters for numbering with user defined transaction type for classification
- Multiple shipment and payment schedule for every products in sales & purchase orders
- Support "one-to-many" and "many-to-one" handling between sales & purchase orders
- Auto-generate P/O to default vendor from S/O for back-to-back orders trade
- Comprehensive inquiry functions for price history, order status, stock availability
- Reports can be printed to Excel, PDF & Email with drill down to entry for details
- Powerful "pivot table" report designer with popular computation functions such as Sort Value, Date Field, Condition Field, Ratio, Variation & Summary, etc.
- Advanced password management, system change log, and user access rights to functions and data